Headline:
Mild and cloudy with patchy rain and brisk winds.

Today:
A rather cloudy and breezy day with outbreaks of rain and drizzle, although some drier and brighter interludes are possible across the east of the region. Very mild for the time of year. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Tonight:
Outbreaks of rain clearing northwards this evening, but it will remain rather cloudy overnight with further rain spreading east later and winds becoming increasingly strong. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Friday:
Outbreaks of rain soon clearing eastwards to leave a largely dry and very mild day, with sunny spells. However, it will be very windy with strong gusts, gradually easing later. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Largely dry Saturday with sunny spells. Heavy showers or longer spells of rain Sunday, easing on Monday. Often windy and starting very mild, but becoming colder next week.
